

The rule states, "An entering freshman student who 'transfers' from a Fayette County Public School to Lexington Christian Academy will not be eligible to play any sport at the varsity level their freshman year. Such students will be able to play, however, at the freshman and junior varsity levels."